NOTES.

Attention is called to the joint meeting of the American Philosophical and Psychological Associations at Yale University at the end of December. The Philosophical Association will devote one or more sessions to the discussion of the problem of "Existence and Value," while a joint discussion between the two associations will consider the question "The Standpoint and Method of Psychology."

A conference devoted to questions regarding the relation of philosophy, economics, and law will be held at the University of Chicago on November 28 and 29.

Professor A. T. Ormond, senior professor of philosophy in Princeton University, has resigned his chair to accept the presidency of Grove City College, Pa.

John M. Mecklin, formerly professor of philosophy at Lafayette College, has been appointed to the chair of philosophy at the University of Pittsburgh.

The following academic appointments in philosophy are announced at the beginning of the academic year: Dr. J. F. Dashiel, of Columbia University, professor at Waynesburg College, Pa.; M. E. Penney, assistant professor in Syracuse University; Dr. Crawford, of the University of Chicago, professor in Beloit College; Dr. Mohr, of the University of Chicago, acting professor in the University of Indiana in the absence of Dr. Warner Fite; Ellsworth Faris, professor in the University of Iowa; Roberts B.
